1918 CYCLONE MEMORIAL

This memorial commemorates the Mackay and Biloela citizens who lost their lives during the cyclone and floods which struck January 20 and 21, 1918.

The memorial also commemorates the Mackay residents who survived the great disaster and rebuilt the City of Mackay. They were strong and resolute and their deeds are the foundations of Mackay's continued prosperity.

In this stone is记载 the names of those who perished.

Names recorded as "Danny" and "Jimmy".
