

RADF Applications Round 1 2018/2019

	Name	Category	Project Title & Description	Approved amount
1	Daryl Barnes	Green Arts (moved to Projects & Programs)	The Ultimate Sacrifice - To animate Book 4 of Crazy Bird Stories called Olive's Magic Powers utilising local visual and audio artists and school communities.	8950
2	Margaret Burgess	Green Arts	Plastic Boutique 2 – A community project that will give discarded plastics and marine debris value by creatively recycling and turning them into something beautiful or functional.	10,000
3	David Sheldon	Community Wellbeing	Tin Shed Studios Community Program - Establishing a community program of accessible studio sessions for the public to record and produce material that will have broad community benefit.	8,400
4	Owen Burns & Kerry McNeill	Green Arts	Platypus Wind Turbine Stage 2 – A previous recipient of RADF Green Arts funding to complete design and testing phases, the turbine is now ready for fabrication & installation. A 3m vertical axis blade atop a 3m stand. The blade will be finished with a flick book style animated platypus.	11,800
5	David Day	Green Arts (moved to Concept Development)	Reuse of Plastic Waste - Research into how to reuse plastic waste for use as construction material in external environments. Will include the experimentation of processes using low heat and exploration of moulding techniques	7,000
6	Dominic McCarthy	Individual Development	The thirteenth International Boy's Ballet Summer School - A one-week intensive summer school, conducted over six days for boys passionate about dance from around Australia and beyond by top teachers and choreographers. Classes include ballet, jazz, contemporary, repertoire	1,300
7	Tracey Robb	Concept Development	Lichen Garden - Develop 3D wired crochet techniques to produce sculptural crochet lichens for a vertical garden installation to exhibit in Mackay.	4,700
		TOTAL APPROVED		$52,150