

RADF Applications Round 3 2018/2019

	Name	Category	Project Title & Description	Approved amount
1	Jan Ward	Individual Development	Multi-plate etching: Attending a three day class at Australian Print Workshop to learn the fundamentals of multi-plate colour etchings including professional registration techniques. An opportunity to expand etching skills.	$1,455
2	Azure Glass	Individual Development	Mould making: Attendance by two artists at a workshop at Sculptured Glass, facilitated by Shar Moorman in Buderim. "Mold making" covers a variety of techniques including permanent and non-permanent molds, silicone, wax & plaster casting.	$2,000
3	Valley Spinners and Craft Group	Projects/Programs	Jamboree 2019: Presenting a weekend of craft and skill sharing of all things textiles. Workshops are presented by attendees and local providers are invited to showcase their products.	$1,060
4	Judy Rose	Projects/Programs	Lots of Pots in the Gazebo: Artist in Residence in collaboration with the Beaconsfield Road Men's Shed. Installation of a gazebo (3300mm wide x 2400mm high) made of terra cotta, glazed, and mosaic pots.	$2,766
5	Lucas Ihlein, Kim Williams, Starrett Ve a Ve a	Community Wellbeing	New ways, old ways: culture in agriculture: Sugarcane harvest celebration at The Beacon, Mackay Regional Botanic Gardens. Diverse communities (Australian South Sea Islander, Italian, Maltese, farmers) gather for harvest, storytelling, music, dance, accompanied by scientific crop analysis.	$8,290
6	Jenni Hanna/Finch Hatton Art Trail/Finch Hatton Progress Assn.	Community Wellbeing	Finch Hatton Art Trail/Flood Wall: Installing artwork created by children attending school in the Finch Hatton area to enhance the entry to the Finch Hatton Showgrounds/camping area (80 meters in length). This entryway sees a great deal of traffic at different times of the year. Exhibiting the children's art in this public way will instill a sense of pride and inclusion in the young people in our community.	$13,230
7	Jessica Sanga	Projects/Programs	Children's Bilingual Picture Book - new instalment of Abora stories: This project will continue the story of Abora, a Bilingual Children's picture book that will showcase the languages of Solomon Islands Pijin and Malaita Lau languages.	$8,430
8	Crossroad Arts Inc	Projects/Programs	Loose Ends: Created locally, Loose Ends is an evening that celebrates diversity and features a collection of quirky acts from cabaret, to poetry to karaoke sing -a -longs from performers with and without disability.	$8,050
9	Mackay Creatives	Projects/Programs	Mastering Acrylics with Barry and Lucy McCann: A three day skill development workshop (painting with acrylics) with world renowned tutors Barry and Lucy McCann.	$3,500
10	George Street Neighbourhood Centre	Community Wellbeing	Art Workshops at CALD Women's Club: The project will deliver 5 art workshops for culturally and linguistically diverse women of Mackay that attend CALD Women's Club to improve their wellbeing through art.	$2,123
11	David Day	Concept Development	Zoo Fish: Creation of transportable largescale fish sculpture to continue creating awareness about the condition of our oceans and the importance of being litter wise and recycling to help reduce landfill.	$8,202.50
12	Pioneer Division Handcraft and Cultural Committee	Individual Development	Pioneer Division attend State Handcraft School in Maryborough: The Annual State Handcraft School is held in conjunction with the Queensland Country Women's Association State Conference. Up to 50 women across Queensland attend the Handcraft School.	$3,160
		TOTAL APPROVED		$62,266.50