Australia Day / 2 March, 7pm

The country town of Coriole is getting ready for Australia Day a time to crack open a frothy, stick a snag on the barbie and celebrate what it means to be a true blue Aussie. The Australia Day committee is gearing up to put on the town's biggest party but they have a few issues of their own to sort out first. With everyone from the Greens to the local mayor to the CWA wanting a piece of the party pie, it's proving hard yakka to work out what an Aussie celebration should look like. Nothing is sacred as the national identity is put through the wringer in this thoroughly modern ripper of a comedy! Will the day be fair dinkum after all? Or are there too many roos loose in the community hall? Written and directed by acclaimed playwright and Sydney Theatre Company satirist Jonathan Biggins (The Wharf Revue), Australia Day returns in a brand new touring production for 2015. MECC Auditorium. Tickets $42, concessions available. Please note > Contains strong language and adult themes. Recommended 15+

Quartet by Ronald Harwood / 4 March, 7:30pm

After wowing the world, retired opera singers Reggie, Cissy and Wilf have been put out to pasture in a country retirement home. Their chief concerns are scatty Cissy's wandering memory, flirty Wilf's obsession with dirty talk, and gentleman Reggie's ongoing battle to get bloody marmalade with breakfast. What keeps the trio raging against the dying of the light is headlining the annual gala concert marking composer Verdi's birthday. The serenity of their rehearsal room is shattered by the arrival of Jean: diva, celebrated soprano, fourth member of their quartet and Reggie's ex-wife. Not that he's thought about their horribly dysfunctional marriage in years, of course. Can these four put aside old grudges and re-team for one more show-stopping finale? Quartet, also adapted as an acclaimed 2012 film, is a devilishly funny journey. MECC Auditorium. Tickets $42, concessions available. Please note > Infrequent, very low level coarse language and sexual references.

Flow by Jodie Connolly / 6 April – 1 May

Flow will be a solo painting and mixed media exhibition. The works will be abstract, bright and colourful. The paintings theme will be about listening to your personal creative energy and letting it flow, just like the medium used. This is a step in a different direction for local artist Jodie Connolly as her preferred medium for the past few years has been digital. In this exhibition she has decided to pick up her paints and canvas and experiment with a new style where mistakes that happen cannot be undone by the click of a button. Mackay Regional Botanic Gardens Lagoons Gallery is open Wednesday to Friday 10am – 3pm and weekends from 9am - 4pm.

Steve Earle & The Dukes – Bluesfest Touring / 22 March, 7:30pm. Incomparable Country/Blues/Folk-rocker & pioneer of the Outlaw Country music movement, Steve Earle is returning to Australia.
