

Octopus Bush

Argusia argentea

Pronunciation

Category: Shrub (under 5m)

Height: 5 metres

Spread: goes here

Full sun

Drought tolerant once established

Well-drained soil

Bee attracting

Butterfly attracting

Native to coastal regions and found growing in rocky or sandy soils. Silky clusters of coiled spikes near the ends of branches where the flowers form look like the legs of an Octopus, hence the common name.

it generally flowers and sets fruit nearly continuously throughout the year and the foliage has a silvery velvet appearance.

HOT TIP: Text goes here and can continue on

CAUTION: Text goes here and can continue on

WARNING: Text goes here and can continue on