

Euodia

Melicope elleryana
Me-lee-cope eller-ree-ah-na

Category: Trees 5-10m

Height: 10 metres

Spread: 3 metres

Medium to large evergreen tree and large clusters of wildlife attracting pink flowers during summer.

These trees form a rounded canopy and have a shallow root system which make them ideal for street-scaping. Flowers most profusely in full sun and attracts nectar feeding wildlife to the garden. This tree is a natural host for the Ulysses butterfly and many other species.

Part-shade

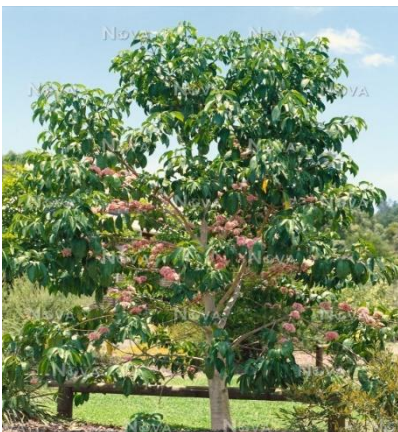

Full Sun

Bird attracting

Butterfly
Attracting

HOT TIP: Plant in full sun for maximum flowering