Water Notice Explained

A Reading period: Billing period for the notice. Water notices are issued half yearly in May and November.

B The name and address of ratepayer. Have you changed your address? This can be updated at www.mackay.qld.gov.au/onlineservices.

C Issue date: The official date council issues your rate notice. Data is collated prior to the issue date.
Assessment number: Is your reference number. Please use when contacting council regarding your notice.
Total amount due: Total amount payable by due date.
Payment due date: Payment is due on or before this date.

D Summary of consumption: Daily average consumption is calculated by dividing your total water consumption by the number of days displayed. You can compare this number to your previous two billing periods and the daily usage in your suburb.

E Paper notice fee: Payable for notices issued via mail. Register for eNotice delivery to avoid this charge.

F Personalised graph: Shows your current daily usage (residential properties only) compared to previous two billing periods and your suburb's average daily usage.

G Consumption charges:
Tariff 1 - 0-150 killitres.
Tariff 2 - any consumption greater than 150 kilolitres.
1 kilolitre = 1000 litres.

H Payment reference details: If you are having difficulty paying your water notice, you can submit a payment plan through online services (registration required) or contact council to discuss payment options.
